Watkinson leads field at Riversdale

Sydney golfer Allyce Watkinson takes a two shot lead going into the second round of the Women's Riversdale Cup in Melbourne today.

She fired a three under par opening round yesterday in the 72-hole championship tournament.

Riversdale's Amanda Chin was tied in second spot with Su-Hyun Oh, from Kingswood, at one under par.

The shot of the day went to Nicola Buddee from Queensland with a hole-in-one on the 14th.

Reigning Riversdale Cup champion Jessica Speechley from Western Australia had a slow start with five over the card, while New Zealand sensational teenager Lydia Ko was tied fourth and square with the card.

An impressive field of more than 50 players with handicaps of 3 and under are vying for the 53rd Women's Riversdale Cup, which is a National and State selection event, as well as a Karrie Webb Championship event.
